

CHAPTER 11 CASES

- Parties preparing to file a larger chapter 11 case or a complex case under Local Rule 2081-3 who wish to advise the court of the anticipated filing of the case should not directly contact judges' chambers but should notify the clerk of court or the chief deputy clerk.
- Once the case has been filed and assigned to a particular judge, parties may contact the judge's chambers to schedule any emergency hearings or other calendar matters.