This requirement includes debtors' counsel and pro se debtors emailing the case trustee by a secure method imaged copies of a debtor's photo identification and proof of social security number at least two business day prior to the meeting of creditors. The trustee may provide debtors' counsel and pro se debtors with further specifics regarding how to furnish this information.

If this method of debtor identification proves unsatisfactory to the trustee or to the United States Trustee, substitute proof of identification may be required using one of two alternative methods. Alternative method #1 entails a certification or declaration by a debtor's counsel confirming a debtor's identity. Alternative method #2 involves furnishing a sworn identification affidavit which requires a notary signature. Both the attorney certification/declaration form or the affidavit form may be obtained from the case trustee or the United States Trustee. Both alternative methods described for debtor identification must be completed and furnished to the trustee two business days prior to the meeting of creditors.

Phone Etiquette Guidelines

The following video/phone etiquette guidelines will be required of all parties participating in telephonic meetings of creditors:

- a. Mute the call/audio while your meeting is not being held.
- b. Limit all background noise while your meeting is being held.
- c. No speaker phone should be used unless two or more persons are appearing on the same line, i.e., debtor and counsel or joint-filing debtors.
- d. Debtors and counsel are to be at a set location, and not in transit, so that full attention can be given to the questions being asked.
- e. Only debtors and their counsel as well as creditors or interested parties will be allowed on the connection, i.e., no "moral support," "coaching," or supplementary answers are to be provided by friends or family during the call.
- f. Any telephonic appearances by debtors without their counsel also present on the conference call at the appointed time will result in a continuance. After two failed attempts, the trustee may seek the dismissal of the case.
- g. Attorney for the debtor(s) should share invitation information for participation in the teleconferencing 341 meetings with debtors and any creditors wishing to participate in the meeting.
- h. All parties attending meetings of creditors shall call just prior to the designated meeting time or as otherwise instructed by the trustee assigned to the case, or in chapter 11 cases, by the United States Trustee. Parties should disconnect from the call after the meeting attended is concluded.
- i. No recordings of the phone conference may be made by any party other than the trustee, United States Trustee, or a certified court reporter who has the express written permission of the trustee or United States Trustee to record the meeting.

**The temporary policies and procedures in this document do not otherwise affect a debtor's requirement to submit and provide all other necessary documents to the Court and to the trustee or United States Trustee. Also, these procedures are subject to change due to the dynamics of the present circumstances.
