LOCAL RULE 1001-1: SCOPE, CITATION, AND APPLICABILITY OF LOCAL RULES

- a. Scope and Citation of Rules. These local rules govern practice and procedure before the Court. The rules are to be cited as "District of South Carolina Local Bankruptcy Rules" and the individual rules may be cited as SC LBR ____ or "Bankr. D.S.C. R. ____."
- b. Construction of Rules.
  1. Construction with Other Rules. These rules do not create, modify, or abrogate substantive rights. The rules are not to be construed in a manner inconsistent with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
  2. References to Debtor and Creditor. Reference to "debtor" or "creditor" in the local rules shall also include counsel for the party where appropriate.
- c. Local Forms. For proposed orders, instructional footnotes, and document identification information, such as form version numbers or coding that indicates a form is internal to a law firm, should be removed prior to submitting the order to the Court.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of former SC LBR 9001-1 were consolidated into paragraph (b) of this rule pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9029(a) and the Judicial Conference's prescribed numbering conventions. Former paragraphs (c) and (e) were deleted as unnecessary.

(2013) Paragraph (a) was amended to reflect the Blue Book citation. Paragraph (b)(4) and (c) were added.

(2017) Paragraph (c) was revised to reflect Official Form changes to the captions of notices required to be sent by debtors and to remove references to exhibits to the local rules.

(2023) Paragraphs (d) and portions of paragraphs (b) and (c) were superfluous and removed as duplicative of or in conflict with the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedures, and/or provisions in standard orders or notices.

LOCAL RULE 1007-1: LIST OF CREDITORS

It is not necessary to include the debtor, joint debtor, attorney for the debtor, case trustee, the United States trustee, or the judge assigned to the case on the matrix because these, where applicable, will automatically be added by the Court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing ("CM/ECF") system.

It is the debtor's responsibility to verify and ensure that the information on the mailing matrix is identical to that on the schedules, statements, and lists. The debtor shall update the mailing matrix as needed throughout the pendency of the case.

Please see the Court's website for an updated creditor address list containing the preferred addresses of creditors.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of this rule were restyled and procedures to ensure the integrity of the mailing matrix were clarified.

(2013) Portions of this rule were revised to conform with inclusion of various operating orders in the local rules.

(2023) Portions of the rule were superfluous and removed as duplicative of or in conflict with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007.

LOCAL RULE 1009-1: AMENDMENTS OF VOLUNTARY PETITIONS, LISTS, SCHEDULES, AND STATEMENTS

- a. Statement of Change. In addition to the requirements under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1009, when the debtor amends the petition, lists, schedules, or statements, the debtor must file with the Court and give notice of, to any party in interest affected by the amendment, a statement indicating the changes made by the amendment. The local form statement of change shall be the first page of the amendment filed.
- b. Amendments Adding Creditors. When the debtor adds a creditor by amending either the schedules or the list of creditors, or if the debtor initially files schedules that add creditors to the list filed with the petition, in addition to the requirements of subsection (a), the debtor also must update the mailing matrix for noticing purposes and simultaneously give notice to the added creditor of the following: (1) Notice of Bankruptcy Case; (2) Your Statement About Your Social Security Numbers; (3) the order granting discharge (if any); and (4) any other document filed in the case which affects the rights of the creditor.
- c. Address Changes. When the debtor seeks only to change an address on a petition or list, or is required to change an address as a result of returned mail, such change is not considered an amendment, and the requirements of subsection (a) are not applicable.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of former paragraph (c) were consolidated with paragraph (b). Former paragraph (d) was restyled as paragraph (c). Former paragraph (e) was deleted as unnecessary based upon the incorporation of the Interim Bankruptcy Rules into the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(2015) The rule was amended to remove reference to the official form number for the statement of social security number and conform the names of official forms to the new form names.

LOCAL RULE 2002-1: NOTICES

- a. Duty of Certain Filers to Update Mailing Matrix. Upon the filing of a proof of claim and/or notice of appearance by a CM/ECF user, the filing party shall add or substitute the address listed therein on the mailing matrix in CM/ECF for purposes of receiving further notices. Failure to comply shall be deemed a waiver of the right to receive notice.
- b. Designation of Addresses. A party in interest filing a notice of preferred address pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 342(f) shall file the notice with the agency or agencies<sup>1</sup> that provide noticing services to the Court.<sup>2</sup> A party in interest who has filed an 11 U.S.C. § 342(f) notice of preferred address may, in a chapter 7 or 13 case, provide the Court with an 11 U.S.C. § 342(e) case specific address by filing a designation, which shall be in substantial conformance with the Court's local form. Parties may rely on the address and the method of notice specified by the party in interest to the Court's noticing agency.
- c. Delegation of Re-Noticing. If noticing is delegated and the notice is returned as undeliverable,<sup>3</sup> the party sending the notice or the debtor, if the matter is noticed by the Court, shall, re-notice the returned item upon the correction of the address, if known, or file a statement that notice was not provided to the particular party in interest.
- d. Duty to Provide Accurate Address. The debtor or the debtor's attorney shall file and, if appropriate, docket a statement providing the Court with a correct address of any creditor or party in interest whose address appears invalid or undeliverable based either on the debtor's receipt of returned mail or a notice filed by the Court's noticing agent. The statement shall specifically reference the former address of the creditor or party in interest to ensure proper modification of the list of creditors. If the debtor is unable to determine a correct address for a creditor or party in interest, the debtor shall file or docket a statement specifying the creditor's name and indicating that a correct address cannot be found. The Clerk of Court is authorized to remove a creditor or party in interest and the incorrect address from the list of creditors where the address fails to include all necessary information for delivery, the address results in returned mail, or the address is bypassed for mailing by the Bankruptcy Noticing Center.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of this rule were restyled. Former paragraph (c) was deleted as unnecessary based upon the incorporation of the Interim Bankruptcy Rules into the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(2009) The period in Exhibit A was amended to a multiple of seven as part of time computation amendments.

(2013) Paragraphs (a) and (b) were restyled. Paragraph (b) was also amended to reference that a party in interest may advise the Court's noticing agency that it consents to a particular method of notice, such as electronic notice. Paragraph (c) was added to incorporate provisions found in former Operating Order 08-05.

<sup>3</sup> If the movant is a governmental unit or not otherwise a person as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 101(41), it may request that the Clerk of Court re-notice the document following the correction of the address.

LOCAL RULE 2015-3: UNIFORM PERIODIC REPORTS

- a. Monthly Reports. In accordance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 704(a)(8), 1107(a), and 1203, and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2015, the debtor-in-possession or, if applicable, the trustee, shall file with the Court a financial report for the preceding month not later than the 21st day of each month. This report must conform to the format provided by the United States trustee.
- b. Post-Confirmation Reports. Following the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the debtor, reorganized debtor, trustee, and any other authorized party involved in implementing a confirmed plan shall continue to file periodic operating reports until such time as the case is closed by the Court. This report must conform to the format provided by the United States trustee.
- c. Report of Substantial Consummation. Within ninety (90) days after the date the order confirming plan of reorganization is entered, or whatever time period the Court or Bankruptcy Code may otherwise require, the debtor, trustee, or other plan proponent shall file a report of substantial consummation, a final report, and an application for a final decree. However, this section shall not apply to cases where the plan of reorganization for a small business debtor proceeding under subchapter V is confirmed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1191(b) and the trustee makes payments to creditors under the plan pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1194(b).

A second application may be made on or after sixty (60) days after the first application, and a third application may be made on or after sixty (60) days following the second application. After one hundred fifty (150) days following the date of the order for relief, applications may not be made more than once every ninety (90) days, unless the Court orders otherwise.
- b. Chapter 13 Cases. An attorney representing a debtor in a chapter 13 case may obtain approval of attorney's fees without the filing of a formal fee application and a hearing when the attorney and the debtor(s) agree in writing that the fee for representation will be equal to or less than $5,000.00 for the representation of consumer debtor(s) and $6,000.00 for representation of debtor(s) engaged in business at the time of the filing of the case (collectively, the "Expedited Fee Amount").
  1. Definition of Business Case. A debtor shall be considered to be engaged in business for purposes of this Rule if: (1) the debtor's business meets the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 1304; or (2) a significant amount of the debtor's and/or the debtor's spouse's income necessary for performance under the debtor's chapter 13 plan is derived from the debtor's and/or the debtor's spouse's business.
  2. Expedited Fee Amount. The Expedited Fee Amount includes all actions required for representation of the debtor from the pre-filing initiation of the representation to the conclusion of the case (whether by dismissal, conversion, discharge, or closing),<sup>1</sup> except the following:

If the attorney seeks additional fees for a service not listed in section (b)(2)(a-n) (including unanticipated, extraordinary matters requiring exorbitant amounts of attorney time), the attorney may file a Statement of Supplemental Fees under section 6. The Statement should detail the time spent and the services provided as well as an explanation regarding why the service should not be included in the Expedited Fee Amount.

<sup>1</sup> Attorneys should review their duty to represent the debtor under SC LBR 9011-1(b). SC LBR 2016-1(b)(2) only addresses what services are covered by the expedited fee amount. The B2030 Form shall clearly indicate the fee agreed upon, the amount paid to date, and the amount to be paid through the plan, and shall define any charges or potential charges for supplemental fees. Counsel must include as an attachment to the B2030 Form, a copy of counsel's signed representation agreement with the debtor(s).

6. Statement of Supplemental Fees. Any supplemental compensation charged by the debtor's attorney and relating to the debtor's bankruptcy case must be disclosed, whether that amount will be paid through disbursements by the Trustee or paid directly by the debtor(s) or by a third party on behalf of the debtor(s), to the Court and all parties-in-interest by utilizing the "Statement of Supplemental Chapter 13 Attorney Fees and Costs" event in CM/ECF ("Statement").<sup>2</sup> The Statement shall contain a description of services provided with sufficient information to determine whether the supplemental fee is fair and reasonable. The Statement must be used for the disclosure of any supplemental compensation that will be paid through disbursements by the Trustee or paid directly by the debtor(s). Notice of the Statement must be provided to the debtor(s) and the Trustee. All supplemental fees approved for disbursement by the Trustee or approved as a direct payment by the debtor(s) remain subject to the Court's consideration of the fee under 11 U.S.C. § 329(b) at any time prior to the closing of the case.
  - i. Before Confirmation. Upon plan confirmation, the supplemental fees set forth in the Statement are deemed approved for disbursement by the Trustee or, if the fee or costs have been or will be paid directly by the debtor(s) or a third party on behalf of the debtor(s), are deemed approved as a direct payment by the debtor(s).
  - ii. After Confirmation. Unless an objection to the Statement is filed within fourteen (14) days of service or unless the Court orders otherwise, the supplemental fees or costs shall be approved for disbursement by the Trustee or, if the fees or costs have been or will be paid directly by the debtor(s) or a third party on behalf of the debtor(s), shall be approved as direct payment by the debtor(s) subject to the terms of the confirmed plan and these Rules.
7. Application for Reimbursement of Chapter 13 Costs. The Expedited Fee Amount includes all typical costs and expenses, except for filing fees and costs paid to non-attorney third parties for services necessary for the case, such as credit reports, credit counseling, and financial management course fees. If costs and expenses incurred by the attorney exceed $50.00 for a single event or pleading, the attorney may file an application for reimbursement of costs using the Statement provided in subsection (b)(6). If the attorney incurs an expense for a filing fee after the initial filing of the case, the attorney may file an application for reimbursement of the filing fee using the Statement provided in subsection (b)(6). The Statement shall contain a detailed explanation of the costs incurred and whether the amount will be paid through disbursements by the Trustee or paid directly by the debtor(s).
8. Time Limits. A Statement under subsection (b)(6) or (7) shall be filed within 30 days after conclusion of the matter for which the fees or costs are requested.
9. Review of Expedited Fee Amount. The Advisory Committee on Local Rules, Practice, and Procedures shall review the Expedited Fee Amount at least every other year to determine if an increase is warranted. In addition to this biennial review, the Committee may review the Expedited Fee Amount for adjustments at any time the Committee or the Court determines that circumstances

P. 2002(a)(6) and 2016(a) for actual services rendered and expenses incurred. The application and proposed order shall clearly indicate all compensation for the attorney that has been approved in the case prior to the application and report any pending applications. Thereafter, disbursements by the Trustee will be made after receipt and posting of payments from the debtor, but no disbursements will be made until the Trustee can ensure funds are available. All disbursements will be made in accordance with the Trustee's established office policies and procedures and, therefore, may not coincide with the payment due date set forth in the agreement or documents governing the loan terms between the debtor and mortgage creditor. If funds are available, payments by the Trustee to mortgage creditor shall continue through the final month of the confirmed Plan term, with the debtor to resume direct payments to the mortgage creditor the month following or as directed by the Trustee.

- b. Request for Mortgage Creditor Report. If the mortgage creditor has not filed a Compliant Proof of Claim but the plan is otherwise ready for confirmation, the Trustee may file a Request for Mortgage Creditor Report (the “Request”) requiring the mortgage creditor to file either a Compliant Proof of Claim or a Mortgage Creditor Report, providing: an estimate of Pre-Petition Arrears, the ongoing monthly payment amount, and the status of escrow. - A. Post-Petition Charges. Regardless of the disbursement date of the Mortgage Payment paid through a Conduit Plan, the mortgage creditor shall not: (1) declare the loan in default; (2) impose any Post-Petition Charges incurred on account of any delay in the mortgage creditor’s receipt of any payment paid pursuant to the Conduit Plan; or (3) seek to recover or assess late fees or penalties incurred on account of any delay in the mortgage creditor’s receipt of any payment paid pursuant to the Conduit Plan. The debtor should timely review all 3002.1(c) Notices. If the debtor advises the Trustee of an agreement to pay the Post-Petition Charges or fails to file a timely objection to the 3002.1(c) Notice, the Trustee may pay the Post-Petition Charges. The debtor’s advice to the Trustee of an agreement to pay or the debtor’s failure to timely object will be deemed a waiver of any claim against the Trustee for payment of the Post-Petition Charges.
- B. Change by Mortgage Creditor of Name, Address, Servicer, or Trustee, or Transfer or Sale of Loan Documents. To disburse payments, the Trustee will not acknowledge any change of the name or address of the mortgage creditor or any transfer or assignment of claim until a reasonable time after the filing of a notice that complies with Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and/or other applicable Rules.
- C. Notices of Mortgage Servicing Transfers. Notices pursuant to 12 CFR § 1024.33 (“hello” and “goodbye” letters) shall be provided to the Trustee within the deadlines provided in that authority, as may be amended from time to time, by the filing of the notice with the bankruptcy court with privacy information redacted. - a. Presumption of Reasonableness. In order to expedite the determination of an effective interest rate to be used by debtors in meeting the requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 1325, a presumed effective interest rate (Periodic Interest Rate) will be set by the Court with the assistance of a committee of trustees and members of the consumer bar. If applied to a secured claim in a chapter 13 plan, there will be a rebuttable presumption that the Periodic Interest Rate, for plan confirmation purposes, is reasonable.

The debtor, trustee, or other plan proponent shall prosecute its disclosure statement and plan in a timely manner.
- b. Modifications. At the hearing on the disclosure statement or plan, the Court may consider for approval written modifications made prior to the hearing. Except in a statutorily defined small business case or a case under subchapter V of Chapter 11 where the appropriate Official Form plan is filed, to the extent a modification to the disclosure statement or plan is filed with the Court modifying the previously filed document, the proposing party shall file on the docket both a clean and “redlined” version of the modified document providing a comparison of the document reflecting any changes (i.e., added language can be in bold, while deleted language can be reflected as being struck through). To the extent service of the modified document is required by the applicable law, the redlined version should only be filed on the docket but not served.
- c. Denial of Confirmation. If any plan of reorganization or disclosure statement filed by the debtor, trustee, or other plan proponent is not confirmed or approved by the Court, the case may be dismissed or converted without further notice or hearing if the plan proponent fails to file a new disclosure statement and plan, as applicable, within 14 days (or such other period as is ordered) after the hearing that resulted in denial of confirmation or not approving the disclosure statement.

Unless the Court orders otherwise, creditors shall receive adequate protection as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1326(a) from the plan and the provisions set forth below.

    - C. Third, as adequate protection required by 11 U.S.C. § 1326(a), the trustee shall disburse payments to holders of allowed claims secured by personal property and allowed claims for executory contracts that are proposed to be paid through the most recently filed plan. Subject to the availability of funds, these creditors will be paid a full payment for each full month beginning thirty (30) days after the order for relief and continuing through the date of dismissal. No payment will be made for partial months; and
    - D. Any funds remaining after these payments, and all funds received after dismissal, shall be returned to the debtor unless there is a pending Motion to Reconsider Dismissal.
  3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Rule, after dismissal of a case with a Conduit Plan, if a mortgage creditor returns to the chapter 13 trustee any funds disbursed to it by the trustee under the terms of the Conduit Plan, the chapter 13 trustee shall return those funds to the debtor.
- c. Unless ordered by the court or the debtor consents otherwise, upon the conversion of a case, the chapter 13 trustee shall return all funds on hand, and all funds received after conversion, to the debtor.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of this rule were restyled.

(2010) The objection period for agreements related to relief from the automatic stay was amended in Exhibit A to a multiple of seven as part of time computation amendments.

(2014) The requirement that a proposed order recite whether it contains a provision the court does not normally approve (see LR 4001-4(b)(1) for the list) does not suggest that the proposed order contain a finding by the court that the order contains no such provision, rather it mandates a representation by counsel that the order does not contain such a provision. So, for example, the proposed order might state - "Counsel has represented to the court that the order does not contain a provision that the court does not usually approve . . ."

(2017) Reference to rule exhibit was removed and the rule was amended to reference the local form.

(2023) The rule was restyled and paragraph (c) was substantially amended to replace provisions that normally are and are not approved with provisions that must be prominently highlighted in motions and consent orders for use of cash collateral or to obtain credit.

A motion for summary judgment is a request that one or more issues in a case be decided without holding a trial. Motions for summary judgment are governed by Rule 56, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Summary judgment may be granted if (a) the material facts are not genuinely disputed and (b) based on those facts, the party asking for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. If you wish to oppose the motion, you must file with the court and serve on the other party a written response within the time period set forth in a notice that will be separately mailed to you by the Clerk of Court. If you file a written response, a hearing will be held at the location and time set forth in the notice from the Clerk of Court. If you fail to file a timely written response to the motion, the court will consider the motion unopposed and may grant the motion without holding a hearing. This will result in the termination of the matter in favor of the moving party. If you disagree with any of the facts stated by the other party, you must include with your response sworn statements from yourself or other knowledgeable witnesses supporting your version of the facts. A sworn statement may take the form either of an affidavit or a declaration signed under penalty of perjury. Any documents you want the court to consider should be identified in, and attached to, the sworn statements. If you are unable to obtain sworn statements supporting your position, you must file a sworn statement stating why you are unable to obtain such statements at this time.

(2016) This rule is new.

LOCAL RULE 7067-1: DEPOSITING FUNDS WITH THE COURT

a. Receipt of Funds.

1. No money shall be sent to the Court or its officers for deposit into the Court's registry without court order signed by the judge in the case or proceeding.
2. The order of deposit must be prepared by the party seeking the deposit or transfer and state the exact amount to be deposited, that the funds are to be deposited into an interest-bearing account, and that the funds will remain on deposit until further order of the court.
3. The party making the deposit or transferring funds to the Court's registry shall personally serve the order permitting the deposit or transfer on the Clerk of Court. The Clerk of Court must take reasonable steps to deposit the money pursuant to that order as soon as practicable following service. Failure of the party making the deposit or transferring funds to comply with this section releases the Clerk of Court from liability for loss of interest upon the money subject to the order of deposit.
4. All monies ordered to be paid to the Court or received by its officers in any case pending or adjudicated shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in the name and to the credit of this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2041 through depositories designated by the United States Treasury to accept such deposit on its behalf.
5. The funds must be submitted to the Clerk of Court by certified check or money order made payable to "U.S. Bankruptcy Court" in the exact amount specified in the court order.

b. Investment of Registry Funds.

1. Where, by order of the Court, funds on deposit with the Court are to be placed in some form of interest-bearing account or invested in a court-approved, interest-bearing instrument in accordance with Rule 67 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court Registry Investment System (CRIS), administered by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts under 28 U.S.C. § 2045, shall be the only investment mechanism authorized.
2. IRS regulations require special handling for "Disputed Ownership Funds" (DOF), as defined in 26 CFR § 1.468B-9 (Disputed ownership funds). Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, interpleader funds that qualify as a DOF under IRS regulations (e.g., eligible cases filed under 28 U.S.C. § 1335 or Fed. R. Civ. P. 22) shall be deposited in the DOF Pool established within the CRIS and administered by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, which shall be responsible for meeting all DOF tax administration requirements.
3. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts is designated as custodian for all CRIS funds. The Director or the Director's designee shall perform the duties of custodian. Funds held in the CRIS remain subject to the control and jurisdiction of the Court.
4. Money from each case deposited in the CRIS will be "pooled" together with those on deposit with the Treasury to the credit of other courts in the CRIS and used to purchase Government Account Series (GAS) securities through the Bureau of Public Debt, which will be held at Treasury, and in an account in the name and to the credit of the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The pooled funds will be invested in accordance with the principles of the CRIS Investment Policy as approved by the Registry Monitoring Group.
5. An account will be established in the CRIS Liquidity Fund titled in the name of the case giving rise to the deposit invested in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case based on the ratio each account's principal and earnings has to the aggregate principal and income total in the fund after the CRIS fee has been applied. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be prepared and distributed to each court participating in the CRIS and made available to litigants and/or their counsel.

6. For each interpleader case, an account shall be established in the CRIS Disputed Ownership Fund, titled in the name of the case giving rise to the deposit invested in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case after the DOF fee has been applied and tax withholdings have been deducted from the fund. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be available through the FedInvest/CMS application for each court participating in the CRIS and made available to litigants and/or their counsel. On appointment of an administrator authorized to incur expenses on behalf of the DOF in a case, the case DOF funds should be transferred to another investment account as directed by court order.

c. Fees and Taxes.

1. As custodian for all CRIS funds, the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts may assess fees based up on the Bankruptcy Court Miscellaneous Fee Schedule, withhold and pay federal taxes on Disputed Ownership Funds, and distribute income from fund investments after assessing fees.

d. Disbursement of Registry Funds.

1. The Clerk of Court will disburse registry funds only pursuant to a court order. The disbursement order shall state the name and taxpayer identification number for each party who is to receive funds,<sup>1</sup> the mailing address of each party, and the amount each party is to receive.
2. The party must personally serve the signed disbursement order on the Clerk of Court and complete Form AO 213 and/or AO 213P.<sup>2</sup>
3. Funds will not be disbursed until after the time for appeal of the related judgment or order has expired, or upon approval by the Court of a written stipulation signed by all parties.

Notes:

(2014) The rule has been substantially revised to implement a national system for the depositing of certain registry funds. This rule does not apply to funds submitted to the Court pursuant to SC LBR 3011-1 (unclaimed funds) or 4001-5 (rental deposits).

(2025) The rule was revised to provide more guidance on the depositing and investment of funds with the Court.

LOCAL RULE 9011-4: SIGNATURES

a. CM/ECF Participants.

1. Method and Form. Unless otherwise provided herein or by statute, rule, or order, documents filed with the Court in paper form must contain original “wet” signatures. In lieu of the original signature, an authorized CM/ECF Participant may file a document containing a scanned copy of the original signature, a digital signature via any commercially available signature software that provides signature authentication, or an electronic signature. The filing of the document(s) by the CM/ECF filer constitutes a certification that the filer obtained, prior to filing, either the original, physical signature or express documented permission from the signer to affix the signer’s signature to the document and file it, and that the filer has verified that the authorizing signer is in fact the signer. All signatures on documents filed using CM/ECF must be displayed in one of the following ways: by a scanned copy of the original document containing original signature, by electronic or digital signature, or by a “/s/” or “s/” and the name of the person typed in the space where the signature would otherwise appear (e.g., /s/ Jane Doe or s/ Jane Doe). Filing any document using a CM/ECF login and password or the Court’s claim interface constitutes the filer’s signature for purposes of signing the document under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9011. In instances where there is a discrepancy between any CM/ECF login and signature upon the electronic filing of a document, or in instances in which multiple signatures are included, both the filer whose login was used and the signer(s) are responsible attorneys for both Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9011 and SC LBR 2090-1 purposes. All signer(s) must include name, address, telephone number, electronic mail address, United States District Court identification number (where applicable), and any other information as directed by judge, local rule, or order. Unless ordered by the Court upon a showing of exceptional circumstances, the signature of an attorney acting as local counsel for an attorney admitted pro hac vice must appear on all documents filed with the Court.
2. Retention of Original. Unless otherwise provided by statute, rule, or order, the CM/ECF Participant is not required to obtain or retain original signatures where the signer has expressly authorized in writing or electronically that the document be filed with that signer’s digital or electronic signature affixed. However, the filer must retain sufficient evidence of the signer’s permission to sign a particular document and the document’s contents as follows: if the case is dismissed, for a period of three (3) years; or if not dismissed, until the case or adversary proceeding is closed and the appeal time has passed and, if applicable, the time within which a discharge of the debtor may be revoked has passed. Under order of the Court, such documents must be provided for review to parties.

- b. Pro Se Individuals. Any document to be filed with the Court that requires a pro se individual’s signature shall be signed with the original handwritten signature of the filer before delivery to the Court in paper form or by electronic transmission. Pro se individuals shall not electronically sign documents.

Resulting orders shall be served as indicated in SC LBR 9013-4 and its exhibits.
- b. Motion to Reduce Time. In instances of a need for expedited relief, a motion to reduce the time for allowed notice may be filed, which details and supports the reasons for shortening notice and provides a proposed date for hearing (from the calendar posted on the Court's website). The Court will not shorten the time for notice to less than fourteen (14) days absent a sufficient showing of extraordinary circumstances.

These parties are noted on the exhibits in red and only require service by mail when Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004 so requires. In instances where an objecting party is represented by counsel, that party’s counsel also receives an NEF of any resulting order. To assist parties with application of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004, the exhibits note when further examination into whether service under that rule may be required, but only denotes those matters that are expressly considered “Contested Matters” under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 in the Code and Bankruptcy Rules.

The mailing matrix in CM/ECF is continuously updated during the case. Parties should use the most up-to-date mailing matrix when providing notice and service. Please note that the mailing matrix also includes parties who receive an NEF. Depending on the circumstances mentioned above, these parties may not require additional notice or service by mail. You may refer to the “Mailing Info for a Case” utility event in CM/ECF to determine which parties in a case will receive an NEF.

For purposes of this rule and exhibits, in voluntary chapter 7, 12, and 13 cases or an involuntary chapter 7 case, the term “mailing matrix” on the exhibit only applies to debtor’s counsel and those parties listed in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(h)(1) or (2), as applicable, in those instances where notice is required by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(a) following the time period set forth in that rule. Exhibits are provided as a convenience. Parties should consult all applicable authorities to ensure adequate notice and service.

<sup>1</sup> The Clerk of Court does not require or otherwise wish to receive service of pleadings and orders that have been filed on the Court’s docket in CM/ECF.

LOCAL RULE 9014-1: OBJECTIONS

When any document requires a party in interest to file an objection, return, or response to the document within a specified time, <sup>1</sup> the following applies:

- a. The objection must be in writing and properly captioned in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9004 and set forth with particularity the reasons for opposition, citing applicable statutes, rules and controlling case law. The parties may be limited to arguing the matters raised in the objection.
- b. If no objection is filed within the applicable time period, or any objection is withdrawn or resolved, the Court may grant the movant relief without further hearing.
- c. Absent Court approval, no extension of the time permitted to respond to any motion, objection, or other contested matter is effective.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of former SC LBR 9014-4 were incorporated into this rule pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9029(a) and the Judicial Conference's prescribed numbering conventions. Former paragraphs (b) and (c) were deleted pursuant to SC LBR 9011-3 and 9013-3.

(2013) Paragraph (d) is new. Paragraph (e) was moved from SC LBR 9013-1.

(2023) Former paragraphs (b) and (c) were superfluous and removed as duplicative of or in conflict with the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedures, and/or provisions in standard orders or notices.

<sup>1</sup> See SC LBR 9013-4 for deadlines to object to self-scheduled matters.

LOCAL RULE 9015-1: JURY TRIALS

- a. Demand. Any demand for jury trial shall contain a statement indicating whether the demanding party consents to the jury trial being conducted by the bankruptcy judge.
- b. Statement of Entitlement and Consent. Within the later of the time for filing a response to the pleading in which the right to jury trial is asserted, or fourteen (14) days after the right to jury trial is asserted if no responsive pleading is due, a party affected by the demand shall file any response or objection to the claim of the right to a jury trial and a statement whether that party consents to the jury trial being conducted by the bankruptcy judge.
- c. Memorandum. In the event a hearing is scheduled to determine the existence of a right to jury trial, or as directed by the Court, the parties demanding and opposing trial by jury shall file and simultaneously serve on each other and any other affected party a memorandum of the relevant facts and authorities no later than seven (7) days before the hearing.

Notes:

(2008) Portions of this rule were restyled.

(2009) The periods in paragraphs (b) and (c) were amended to multiples of seven as part of time computation amendments.

- a. Initiation of Mediation and Costs. Any party may file and serve on all other parties to the proceeding a motion for mediation. Mediation, as described herein, is contemplated to be non-binding unless the parties otherwise agree. A party opposing mediation shall have fourteen (14) days to file and serve an objection to the request. After reviewing the request, any objections and, if appropriate, conducting a conference with the parties, the Court may order mediation. The Court may also, sua sponte or upon stipulation of all parties, order mediation. Unless the parties agree upon the sharing of the costs of the mediation, including mediator fees, the division of such costs shall be determined by the Court. Absent an order of the Court setting forth a different deadline, election of mediation by agreement of the parties shall occur no later than the earlier of the filing of a joint pretrial order, the time of the final pretrial conference, or seven (7) days prior to the hearing scheduled in a contested matter.
- b. Proposed Order. Any order to mediate shall designate the mediator, specify responsibility for the costs of mediation, and may contain additional provisions regarding the conduct and timing of mediation and the duties and compensation of the mediator.<sup>1</sup> The Court may stay the proceeding, in whole or in part, to allow time to complete mediation, but such proceedings and/or hearings related thereto are not to be delayed absent Court approval which may require a showing of exceptional circumstances.
- c. Selection of the Mediator. The mediator may be a person who is certified under applicable rules or is otherwise qualified by training or experience to mediate all or some of the issues being litigated. Unless otherwise ordered, the mediator may be selected upon the agreement of all the parties or, if the parties cannot agree upon the selection of a mediator, the Court may appoint one. The mediator must promptly determine all conflicts or potential conflicts pursuant to applicable rules and disclose that circumstance to the parties in writing. If a dispute arises concerning the disqualifying effect of any conflict, the Court shall resolve the issue and may appoint another mediator.
- d. Timing and Conclusion of Mediation. Unless otherwise ordered, mediation shall be concluded within thirty (30) days of the order appointing a mediator. The mediator shall report to the Court in writing within seven (7) days following conclusion of mediation whether an agreement was reached by the parties and, if so, whether such agreement will resolve the proceeding and which party or parties will be responsible for the proposed order, stipulation, or notice of settlement. The proposed order, stipulation, or notice of settlement is due within fourteen (14) days of the mediator's report. If the proceeding is not resolved by mediation, the proceeding will be set for hearing, pre-trial conference, or trial in the ordinary course.
- e. Disqualification of Mediator. Any party may move for an order disqualifying the mediator. If the motion is granted and the mediator is disqualified, an order shall be entered appointing a replacement mediator.
- f. Confidentiality. Communications during the mediation conferences shall be confidential. The parties, their attorneys, and other persons present shall maintain the confidentiality of the mediation and shall not rely on, introduce, or attempt to introduce as evidence in any arbitral, judicial, or other proceeding, any event, document, or communication relating in any way to the mediation. Except when ordered by the Court for exceptional circumstances shown, the mediator shall not be listed or called as a witness or be compelled by subpoena or otherwise to divulge any records or to testify in regard to the mediation in any adversary proceeding or judicial forum. All records, reports, and other documents received or created by the mediator while serving in that capacity shall be confidential.
- g. Immunity of Mediator. The mediator shall not be liable to any person for any act or omission in connection with a mediation conducted under these rules or the Local Civil Rules for the United States District of South Carolina.
