

HOW DO I REQUEST DEBN?

SIGN UP FOR DeBN - It's easy!

1. Download a Debtor's Electronic Noticing Request (DeBN) form from the court's website at www.scb.uscourts.gov/local_forms.html
2. Complete section 1 and sign the form.
3. Mail the form to or file the form at the Court's Columbia office or have your attorney file the form.
4. The BNC will send an email asking you to confirm your DeBN request.
5. You must click on the link in this confirmation email from the BNC to activate your DeBN account.
6. The BNC will send a second email displaying your personal DeBN account number and indicating your DeBN account has been activated.

HOW DO I UPDATE MY DEBN ACCOUNT?

Complete section 2 and file a Debtor's Electronic Noticing Request (DeBN) form if:

- Your email address changes.
 - You wish to reactivate a DeBN account that was deactivated.

Form may be downloaded at www.scb.uscourts.gov/local_forms.html

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF DEBN?

- DeBN is FREE - There is no charge to register or to view court orders and notices sent to you by email.
- Fast - Receive court orders and notices the same day they are filed, just like attorneys in the case.
- Convenient - Read the orders and notices anywhere you have internet access.
- Easy to Register - Just file the Debtor's Electronic Noticing Request (DeBN) form and click on a link in the confirmation email you receive from the BNC.
- Go Green - Less paper clutter.

WHAT IS DEBN?

DEBTOR ELECTRONIC BANKRUPTCY NOTICING (DeBN) is a FREE and voluntary service that allows debtors to request delivery of court orders and notices by email rather than by U.S. Mail at a mailing address.

WHO IS THE BNC?

The BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER (BNC) sends court orders and notices from all bankruptcy courts to debtors and others parties in bankruptcy cases.

WHAT ARE COURT ORDERS AND NOTICES?

Court orders and notices are documents filed by the court. Here are some examples:

- Meeting of Creditors Notice
- Notices of Deficiency
- Notice of Requirement to Complete Course in Financial Management
- Order Confirming Chapter 13 Plan
- Order of Discharge of Debtor
- Notice of Dismissal

WHO CAN SEND EMAILS TO ME?

Someone who requests DeBN consents to service by email of ONLY court orders and court-generated notices. The BNC will send emails to you on behalf of the court.

No other parties send documents to you by email. All other parties, including creditors and trustees, must continue to serve documents upon the debtor according to court rules, i.e. by U.S. Mail, overnight mail, or personal delivery.

HOW LONG AM I ENROLLED IN DEBN?

Once your DeBN account is activated, the account remains active, unless:

- 1) The BNC disables the account because the BNC was notified of an email delivery failure (“bounce-back”);
- 2) You file a Debtor’s Electronic Noticing Request (DeBN) form and complete section 3 of that form; or
- 3) You do not update your mailing address with the Court and the address with the BNC no longer matches the DeBN account mailing address.

As long as your DeBN account is active, all court orders and notices will be sent by the BNC to your email address in any current or future bankruptcy or adversary proceeding from any bankruptcy court district in which your name and address in that case match the name and address in your DeBN account, including cases in which you are a creditor, plaintiff or defendant.

HOW DOES DEBN WORK?

Debtor signs and files a Debtor’s Request to Activate Electronic Noticing (DeBN) form, the court registers the debtor for a DeBN account, the BNC sends a confirmation email to the debtor, and the debtor activates the account by clicking on a link in the confirmation email.

Once a DeBN account is activated, all future court orders and court-generated notices are sent to the debtor as a single PDF attachment to an email. A separate email is sent for each court order or notice.

PDF attachments exceeding 8 MB will be sent by U.S. mail to the debtor’s mailing address, as these court orders and notices are too large to be sent by email. The DeBN account still remains active.

There is no cost to view a PDF attachment and no limit to the number of times a PDF attachment can be viewed. The PDF attachment can be printed, saved to a computer, or retained for viewing any time.

If you update your name or address with the Court, the Court will update the same information with the BNC.
