The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of South Carolina is seeking applicants for a full-time Courtroom Deputy (“CRD”) in its Greenville office. The position offers an excellent opportunity to start or continue a career in federal service. The Clerk’s Office currently consists of 22 employees located in three divisions throughout the district (Charleston, Columbia, and Greenville) who support two bankruptcy judges. The Clerk’s Office offers a stable, friendly, and professional work environment. Relocation bonus possible for qualified applicants conditioned upon a service agreement for a fixed period.

Position Overview:

A CRD acts as a liaison between the Clerk’s Office, members of the bar and public, and chambers to ensure cases proceed smoothly and efficiently. The CRD manages the judge’s caseload and provides courtroom and other assistance by scheduling/managing court calendars, attending and recording court proceedings, and processing orders. The CRD is also responsible for setting dates and times for hearings and trials and works closely with the judges and immediate staff to keep them informed of case progress. This position reports to the Operations Manager and occasional travel, including overnight travel within the district, is required.

Position Duties & Responsibilities:

- Review the progression of cases, including monitoring deadlines and the filing of orders, pleadings, and other documents.
- Schedule and notice dates and times for hearings, trials, and conferences.
- Docket orders and scheduling documents in CM/ECF.
- Review information relating to pending cases to ensure all records and reference materials are available for use by the judge and counsel.
- Utilize reports and information from CM/ECF to obtain case status and for reporting purposes.
- Attend court sessions and conferences in person.
- Assist with the orderly flow of proceedings, including but not limited to, setting up the courtroom, assuring the presence of all necessary participants, managing exhibits, assisting witnesses and jurors, and maintaining courtroom decorum.
- Take notes of proceedings and rulings and prepare minute entries and dockets in the court file.
- Draft judgments and other orders for the judge’s approval.
- Serve as a primary source of information on scheduling conferences, hearings, trials, and other case processes and courtroom equipment for litigants.
- Perform back-up Electronic Court Recorder Operator (ECRO) duties.
- Perform general case administration duties and other duties as assigned.

Minimum Qualifications:

- High school diploma or equivalent is required.
- At the CL 26 level, applicants must have a minimum of one year of specialized experience. At the CL-27 level, applicants must have a minimum of two years of specialized experience. Specialized experience is progressively responsible experience requiring the regular and recurring application of clerical or administrative procedures that demonstrate an ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives or laws and involve the routine use of specialized terminology and automated software and equipment for word processing, data
