Salary Range: JSP 11 to JSP 13 ($66,214 to $94,373), depending on qualifications
Announcement Date: May 4, 2022
Closing Date: May 15, 2022

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of South Carolina is seeking applicants to fill one full-time judicial term law clerk position. The law clerk will be assigned to The Hon. Elisabetta G. M. Gasparini. The position is located in Charleston, South Carolina and requires occasional travel. Occasional teleworking would be allowed at the discretion of the Judge. This position will be available beginning in July of 2022, but the start date may be adjusted.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The term law clerk duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Reviewing and processing of proposed orders and other bankruptcy case documents to determine issues involved and compliance with legal and procedural requirements;
- Researching and drafting opinions and orders, including proofreading and cite-checking;
- Assisting with chambers administrative duties including answering telephone; advising appropriate Court personnel and parties on the status of particular cases; and assisting the judge during courtroom proceedings;
- Working with chambers and supervisors to resolve case management issues;
- Communicating with various parties in interest in connection with case-related duties; and
- Traveling to other courthouses where the Judge may hold court within the District of South Carolina.

QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the position of law clerk, a person must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school of recognized standing, and preferably have demonstrated at least one of the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- Standing within the upper third of the law school class from a law school on the approved list of either the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools;

- Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school;
- Membership on a moot court team that represents the law school in competition with other law schools.

This list is not all-inclusive; the determination of an acceptable equivalence rests with the appointing judge.

It is preferred that applicants have taken a bankruptcy course in law school or have bankruptcy or civil litigation experience. Course work in secured transactions and business associations or transactions is a plus. Applicants must be highly skilled in legal research and writing; have strong organizational and analytical skills; demonstrate attention to detail; possess maturity, good judgment, high ethical standards, a strong work ethic, and a positive work attitude; and have the ability to multi-task and consistently meet deadlines and targeted goals.

Applicants must also possess excellent computer proficiency, including computer-assisted research skills and the ability to learn the Court's software programs, and work with electronic files and folders. Proficiency with Westlaw, Lexis/Nexis, MSWord, Outlook, and comparable products is required.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

Salary will be based upon experience and qualifications in accordance with JSP guidelines. Bar membership and at least one year of experience are required for salary placement above a JSP 11. Salary will be based upon experience and qualifications in accordance with JSP guidelines. Employment benefits are available.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applicants must submit a cover letter along with (i) Form AO 78 (available at www.scb.uscourts.gov/employment-opportunities); (ii) current resume, (iii) a law school grade transcript, and (iv) a writing sample no longer than 10 pages that is solely the work product of the applicant and may not be co-authored. The required application documents shall be submitted via email in a single PDF file with "EGMG Law Clerk Vacancy No. 22-08" in the subject line to scbc_employment@scb.uscourts.gov. In the cover letter, the applicant should include the date they would be available to start.
