U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN RE:

BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER
SERVICE INTERRUPTION,

Debtor(s).

OPERATING ORDER 26-02

TAKE NOTICE that due to a service interruption affecting the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (“BNC”) beginning October 9, 2026, certain notices required in bankruptcy cases and proceedings have not been transmitted. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006, certain relief may be due to affected parties.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED THAT:

1. Affected Notices and Parties. This service interruption impacts only orders and notices that are served by the Court (“Affected Notice”) and does not include motions, orders, and notices that are served by other parties.¹ A party who fails to receive an Affected Notice due to this service interruption is hereinafter referred to as an “Affected Party.”
2. Deadlines and Hearings. Upon request of an Affected Party or a CM/ECF Participant² in a proceeding involving an Affected Party, or on its own initiative where permitted by law, the Court may extend or reset deadlines or continue hearings as necessary to address the service interruption. CM/ECF Participants should ensure that an Affected Party received adequate notice prior to submission of any request for relief by default filed with the Court. Requests for relief by Pro Se Individuals³ regarding any Affected Notice must be presented by written motion⁴ or orally at a previously scheduled hearing. For the purposes stated in this Order only, and until further order of the Court, Pro Se Individuals may submit a request for a continuance or a request for an extension of time regarding any Affected Notice through the Electronic Document Submission System (“EDSS”), notwithstanding the time limitations set forth in SC LBR 5005-4(d)(3). All scheduled hearings shall proceed unless the Court orders otherwise.

² SC LBR 5005-4(b).

³ SC LBR 5005-4(d).
